

Owl Prowl & Night Walk

Saturday, May 20th

7:30-9:00pm

Rome Conservation Area-Gardner

North County Land Trust and The Gardner Conservation Commission will co-host an evening Owl Prowl and Night Walk on Saturday, May 20th, 7:30pm at Rome Conservation Area in Gardner. Naturalist Laurie Nehring will teach us about local barred owls and how to call to them.

Please bring a flashlight or headlamp. Please, no dogs, our chances of seeing or hearing owls will be diminished if dogs are in attendance. Young children are welcome. ( Keep in mind the age and abilities of your children for what will be approximately a one hour walk in the dark. )

Let us know you are coming via our Facebook North County Land Trust Event "Owl Prowl & Night Walk—May 20th". In case of inclement weather-event updates will be posted on Facebook, be sure to like and subscribe to our page – North County Land Trust.

All programs are free and open to the public thanks to the generous support of our donors and volunteers.

Rome Conservation Area (174 acres) which is located at the end of Brookside Drive, was donated to the trust by the Rome Family, and abuts City of Gardner conservation land.

North County Land Trust is a non-profit conservation trust. Our missions is to protect, preserve and promote the land, farms, forests and watersheds of north central Massachusetts. To learn more about our organization and how you can get involved visit our website www.northcountylandtrust.org or call 978-466-3900